CHUCK SCHUMER TO BREAK WITH PRESIDENT OBAMA ON IRAN DEAL "New York Sen. Chuck Schumer, the chamber's third-ranking Democrat, plans to announce his opposition to the nuclear deal negotiated by the U.S., Iran, and five world powers tomorrow, three people familiar with his thinking tell The Huffington Post... As the soon-to-be leader of his party in the Senate, Schumer's decision to directly fight President Barack Obama on the biggest foreign policy achievement of his presidency is a bold, but not surprising, move." WHAT'S WORKING

REBUILDING NEPAL, ONE VILLAGE AT A TIME "Filmmaker Nehemiah Stark and cinematographer Nick Wilson arrived on an assignment for Time in the village of Samantar, in Dhading district, on May 18, some three weeks after the quake struck. The village is located a mere 75 miles from the earthquake's epicenter, and Stark and Wilson got there at a crucial time... For three weeks, Stark and Wilson documented the struggle of Samantar's residents to secure the rice seeds they needed to survive. They were struck by the villagers' resilience and energy, despite the tragedies they had suffered." [HuffPost]

HOWARD FINEMAN: TRUMPISM WINS "Trumpism is taking over a political party that will have a good chance to win the presidency in next year's election. Which means that if the GOP takes the White House in 2016, it will do so with a leader who has acknowledged, if not fully accepted, Trump's clout and at least these aspects of Trumpism."
